6 Basis for, Purposes and Impacts of Processing Your Personal Data

The processing of your personal data is based on our legitimate interest.the fulfilment of our legal obligations based on national and EU regulation which require us to have appropriate internal procedures in place to enable report infringements of financial markets regulations.

The purpose of the processing of personal data is to investigate the alleged misconducts and violations of the Company's code of conduct and other relating policies and to comply with the regulations governing the procedures. The processing of your personal data will have no other impact on you.

7 Regular Disclosures and Transfers of Your Personal Data to Third Parties

We may disclose your personal data to competent authorities such as the Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority as may be required by law.

8 Transfers of Your Personal Data outside the EU or European Economic Area

Your personal data is not regularly transferred to countries outside the European Union or the European Economic Area. However, it may be transferred in an individual case if needed for the purpose of effective investigation of the alleged misconduct or violation.

In all situations, we transfer your personal data outside the EU or the European Economic Area only based on the lawful grounds mentioned below:

- the EU Commission has decided that the recipient country in question ensures an adequate level of protection;
- we have established appropriate safeguards for the transfer of personal data such as the standard data protection clauses approved by the Commission. You shall then have the right to obtain a copy of such standard clauses by contacting us in the manner described in the section 'Contacts'; or
- you have given your explicit consent for the transfer of your personal data or another lawful basis for the transfer of your personal data outside the EU or EEA exists.

9 Principles for the Retention of Your Personal Data

We retain your personal data in the Data Filing System for the duration of the investigation and the period of time when a possibility of any legal proceedings related to the reported misconduct or violation exists.

10 Rights of a Data Subject in Relation to the Processing of Personal Data

You have the right to, according to applicable data protection legislation, at any time:

- be informed about the processing of your personal data;
- obtain access to data relating to you and review your personal data we process;
- require rectification and completion or erasure of inaccurate and incorrect personal data; and
- obtain a restriction of processing of your personal data.

You should present your request for exercising any of the aforementioned rights in the manner described in the 'Contacts' Section of this privacy statement. We may ask you to specify your request in writing and to verify your identity before processing the request. We may refuse to fulfil your request on grounds set out in applicable data protection legislation.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority concerned or with the supervisory authority of the EU member state of your habitual residence or place of work, if you consider that we have not processed your personal data in accordance with applicable data protection legislation.

11 Principles of Data Security

We respect the confidentiality of your personal data. Access to the Data Filing System is protected by passwords.
